

Involvement of stakeholders in Denmark

The Danish Accreditation Institution

ESQA workshop

Copenhagen December 2019

Why stakeholder involvement?

The Danish
Accreditation Institution

- ✓ Improving methodology and process
- ✓ De-bureaucratization
- ✓ Identifying blindspots
- ✓ Empowering stakeholders
- ✓ Legitimacy
- ✓ Transparency

In and beyond accreditation processes

The Danish
Accreditation Institution

In

- Start-up meetings (HEI)
- Interviews during site visits (HEI+employers representatives)
- Hearing process (HEI)
- Evaluation (HEI)
- Educational program (panels)
- Site visits (panels)
- Commenting on report
- Evaluation (panels)

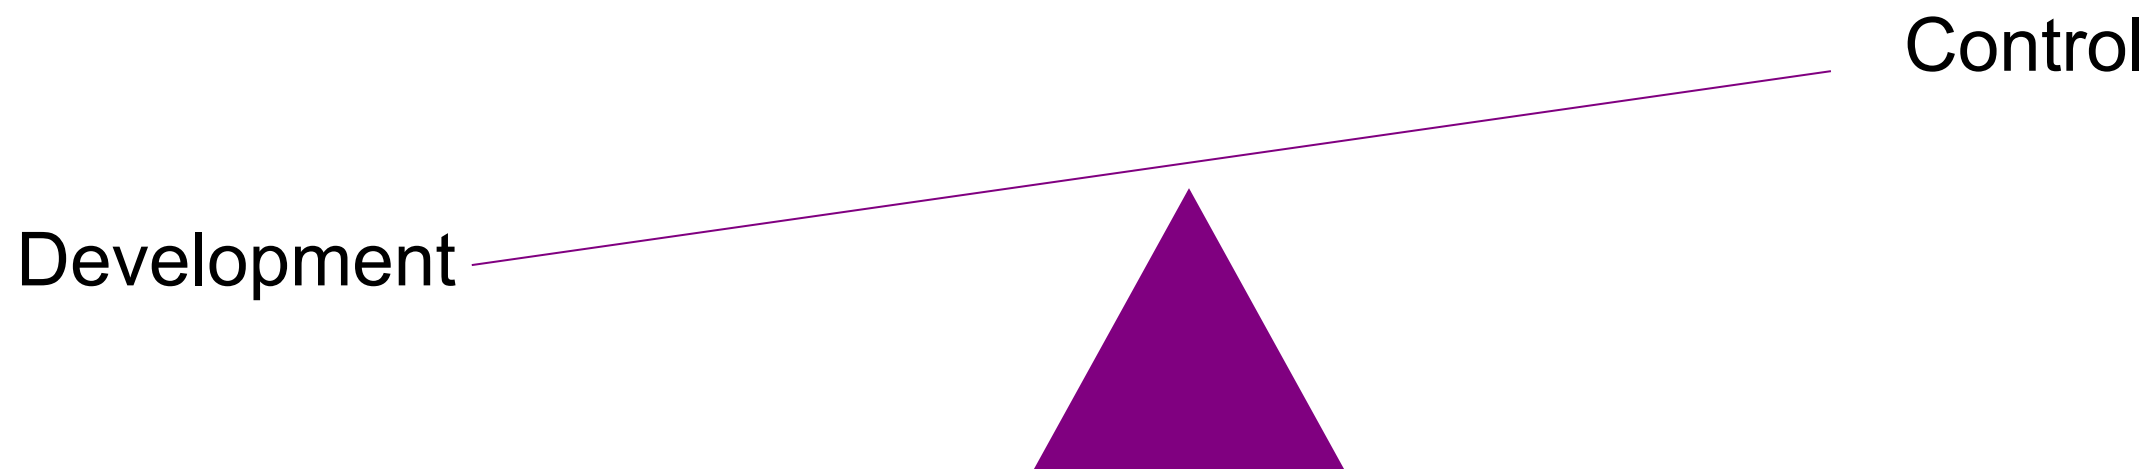

Beyond

- STAR
- IA 2.0
- Analysis projects
- On-going dialogue
- LAN (Learning Analytics Network)
- Specific activities e.g. SCL seminar

The right balance

The Danish
Accreditation Institution

De-bureaucratization

The Danish
Accreditation Institution

- Recruiting expert panels
- Ongoing dialogue throughout the accreditation process
 - Composition of the accreditation panel
 - Site visits
 - Audit Trails

Legitimacy and transparency

The Danish
Accreditation Institution

- Analysis projects – two part involvement
 - I. Propose subjects
 - II. Involved as informants
- Individual and fellow start-up meetings

Opstacles and challenges

The Danish
Accreditation Institution

- Tied framework
- Not enough dialogue with the local level at HEI

Moving forward – next steps

The Danish
Accreditation Institution

